Happy Easter

Easter Bible Verses for our Kiddos

Telling kiddos the story that inspired the Easter holiday—Jesus’ resurrection, is incredibly important—in fact, the foundation of our Christian faith rides on this one event! Paul, inspired by God, said it best in 1 Corinthians 15:14, “And if Christ has not been raised, our preaching is useless and so is your faith.”

It’s completely useless to believe in a god who isn’t powerful enough to raise himself from the dead. That’s what sets Jesus apart from false gods and prophets.

So, this Easter, let’s give our kiddos something more than boiled eggs to paint and bunny chocolates to munch on. Let’s help them understand the true meaning of Easter with the following verses and passages

…On the third day he will be raised to life!
Matthew 20:19b

Mary Magdalene went to the disciples with the news: “I have seen the Lord!”
John 20:18a

“Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here; he has risen!”
Luke 24:5b-6a

“Don’t be alarmed,” he said. “You are looking for Jesus the Nazarene, who was crucified. He has risen!”
Mark 16:6a

He is not here; he has risen, just as he said. Come and see the place where he lay.
Matthew 28:6

Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me will live, even though they die;”
John 11:25
“The Lord is risen indeed!

Luke 24:34a

He is not here; he has risen!

Luke 24:6-7

Don’t be afraid! I am the First and Last. I am the living one. I died but look—I am alive forever and ever!

Revelation 1:17b-18a

By his power God raised the Lord from the dead, and he will raise us also.

1 Corinthians 6:14

With great power the apostles continued to testify to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus

Acts 4:33

He was buried, [and] he was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures

1 Corinthians 15:4

After his suffering, he presented himself to them and gave many convincing proofs that he was alive.

Acts 1:3
